About

CHAMPIONS of Change

Champions of Change is a 12-week Indigenous-led leadership journey designed to equip emerging and established leaders with the tools, mentorship, and global perspectives needed to strengthen their Nations, organizations, and communities.

Rooted in Indigenous knowledge systems and guided by visionary leaders, the program blends leadership development, nation rebuilding, innovation, entrepreneurship, and holistic community transformation into one immersive learning experience.

Through live sessions, mentorship, and collaborative dialogue, participants gain practical strategies and powerful insights that support meaningful, long-term change.

What Participants Experience

WEEKLY LIVE SESSIONS

Learn from Indigenous leaders, innovators, and changemakers.

MENTORSHIP & NETWORKING

Why Your Partnership Matters

Indigenous communities hold the knowledge, values, and solutions needed for a stronger future. Yet many communities continue to face barriers in leadership development, economic opportunities, and access to transformative resources. Your partnership helps empower Indigenous leaders with the tools, mentorship, and networks needed to create meaningful, long-term change within their communities and Nations.

- ✓ Invest in Indigenous leadership and Nation rebuilding.
- ✓ Strengthen communities and future generations through leadership development.
- ✓ Advance reconciliation through meaningful action and partnership.
- ✓ Support Indigenous sovereignty, innovation, and sustainable futures.
- ✓ Help create long-term community impact through education and mentorship.

Investing In Indigenous Leadership

By partnering with Champions of Change, you are investing in Indigenous leadership, community transformation, and future generations. Your support helps create opportunities for Indigenous leaders to access mentorship, strengthen their communities, and build sustainable futures grounded in sovereignty, innovation, and Indigenous knowledge systems.
